Vancouver Pastor Says

PROBLEMS STILL HERE

VANCOUVER.—Some of the old problems of the pre-war period still cling to those who have returned to Vancouver. Among them are familiar ones such as language, relations of the Japanese Canadians to white Canadians, and marriage.

These are serious problems, according to Rev. Tadashi Mitsui, who earlier this month was inducted into the Issei congregation at First United Church. He is also pastor of the Nisei at Columbia Street Mission.

Rev. Mitsui who came here with his wife from Tokyo last October, a year and a half after graduating from a theological seminary, places language at the top of the problems.

He explained that the Issei who are mostly over 60 and have lived in Canada 30 years or more do not speak English. Before World War II they lived in the Japanese section of Vancouver, thus isolating themselves from English-speaking Vancouverites. During the war they were placed in evacuation or road camps in interior B.C.

Thus Rev. Mitsui finds himself preaching in Japanese to the Issei on Sunday evenings, and in English to the Nisei in the mornings.

The minister has found that language is a problem in the home between the Nisei and Issei.

"The older Japanese can't understand the younger ones," he said. "The older Japanese here are very conservative. They are more conservative than older people in Japan because they cling to ideas and customs they brought with them from Japan."

Arrivals Feel 'Shy and Inferior'

Another serious problem is the old one between the young Nisei and his relation with the white Canadians. The problem is worse with those who have come from Japan and who feel "shy and inferior."

Although he is happy that today's Japanese Canadians are not segregating themselves in Vancouver and that many of the Nisei are joining the church in the district in which they live, he still feels that for the next 10 to 20 years there will be a need for a separate church for Japanese here.

"After that they should be part of the various local congregations," he said.

The language problem is particularly severe with those newly-arrived young Japanese who understand little or no English. Rev. Mitsui's church supplies a teacher for an English class for the new arrivals. And his church has recently started a club for them. There are some 40 or 50 young people in this group which meets on Saturdays twice a month for social events, sports, talks and such things as a class in Canadian cooking for the young women.

He added that white Canadians can help their Japanese Canadian neighbours by "trying to understand Japanese thinking."

Boys Can't Get White Collar Jobs

Marriage also presents a problem. For one thing, he pointed out, Nisei girls can get "white-collar jobs" while the boys can't. So salaries and social status between the sexes prove a bar to marriage.

Then, too, he added, "Most of the young men get their brides from Japan and this leaves a lot of 'old maids'. And the Issei frown on the idea of inter-racial marriages."

B.C. Youth Killed In Highway Crash

WILLIAMS, Calif.—A vacationing Canadian Nisei from Mission City, B.C., was killed in a car crash in northern California on Aug. 5 together with two other companions. He was Ronald Kenji Imakire, 18, who was enroute to Sacramento in a 1951 English car.

His small car slammed into the rear of a parked truck near Williams, 140 miles north of San Francisco. The driver of the huge semi-trailer truck loaded with baled hay had pulled to the side of the road to check his lights.

Imakire suffered massive injuries to head, chest and limbs as the roof of the car was sheared off by the impact. Postcards he had intended to mail to his parents in Mission City were found scattered about in the interior of the car.

EXPANDING JAPANESE SECTION AT C.N.E. TO DISPLAY WIDE RANGE OF SPECIALTIES

Six trade experts from Japan, headed by Isamu Takagi of Tokyo, are in Toronto preparing the Japan section at this year's Canadian National Exhibition which is opening next week, Aug. 20. The 4,000 square feet which has been reserved represents the largest space that Japan has occupied.

The Japan Tourist Association's booth will occupy one side of the exhibits in the north wing of the Government Building. The booth is of typical Japanese design and has been designed by the noted architect Iwao Yamawaki. Leading Japanese textile companies, Metropolitan Tokyo, Olympic Fishing Equipment, Okayama-ken and the Furuya Co. of Toronto will display their specialties on the same side of the wing.

On the opposite side will be the industrial equipment displays by the Fuji Heavy Industry, Daiichi Bussan, and the Nippon Kokkan. For the first time, a Japanese small car, the Datsun 1000, will be shown, together with a rabbit scooter manufactured by the Fuji Heavy Industry.

In the centre will be an information booth, displays by the Japanese government and leading camera companies. Miss Sumire Katsuyama will demonstrate knitting machines for the Friend Knitting Co.

Another big attraction will be the fireworks display on the night of August 29. The special display will demonstrate some of the more delicate and colorful uses to which explosives can be put.

Japan Waitresses Tops For Charm

TOKYO.—There may be beautiful waitresses in other countries of the world, but none of them can compare with the beauty, grace and charm of a Japanese girl.

This is the concensus of world travellers visiting Tokyo and it bears out Prof. Makoto Suetaka's theory that "women in countries with a high degree of social security are less charming and interesting than women in other countries."

"Social security is the greatest enemy of good service in the world," Gene Thomas, mass communications media adviser for the International Co-operation Administration in Saigon, Viet Nam, declared.

"Japan has the finest waitresses in the world, with the possible exception of Viet Nam," he said.

While Stockholm waitresses took exception to Prof. Suetaka's theory, tourists who have visited both Europe and Asia were unanimous in their opinion that Asia provides the best waitresses and waiters in the world—Sweden, France and England included.

United States waitresses ranked at the bottom of the list of the nine persons interviewed.

"The crass boldness of American waiters and waitresses is not conductive to pleasant dining," Mr. Thomas said.

He singled out the worst place to dine in the world: Washington, D.C.

"In Washington," Mr. Thomas said, "a waiter or a waitress condescends to serve you, and they are extremely rude."

Hikaru Watanabe, public relations director of Mainichi newspapers in Tokyo, said "there just aren't enough waitresses in France and Italy to make a good comparison with Japanese girls. In all the leading European restaurants and hotels, men do the serving."

Of the persons interviewed, all were unanimous that they would rather be served by a pretty and pleasant waitress than a man in a waiter's uniform.

Mr. Watanabe said any comparison of waitresses in any other country of the world with Japan's kimono-clad beauties is unfair "because we have more girls working in restaurants than any other country."

Mrs. Maxine Thompson, wife of a U.S. executive in Asia, said "there's just no comparison. In Japan, you get service as soon as you sit down in a restaurant. And always with a smile. This can't be said for any other country."

David H. Hickler, regional director of the Civil Air Transport, exclaimed, "Japan is No. 1 for service, waitresses and cordiality."

In Stockholm, "the service wasn't friendly, but it wasn't unfriendly," Mr. Hickler said. "In Denmark, service was good, but it seemed all the waiters had their hands out (for a tip)."

Mr. Hickler named Australia as the worst country in the world for good service.

Thor Johnson, of a U.S. magazine, said: "Without a doubt, Japan has the best waitresses in the world, the United States the worst."

Prof. Suetaka may not have used much research in developing his theory, but it would seem that world travellers tend to agree with him that in Asia, where there is little social security, the waitresses outshine their counterparts in Europe and the United States.

BRANTFORD SOCIAL WORKER WANTS CANADA TO ADMIT HOMELESS KOREAN IMMIGRANTS

BRANTFORD, Ont. — Anne Davison of Brantford wants the Canadian immigration authorities to admit Koreans to Canada.

As a social worker with the Church World Service in the Seoul area she found it "difficult to explain to intelligent, healthy and Christian Koreans who have no homes and no hope that Christian Canada has shut her doors tight."

Miss Davison is about to start a second five-year term of service among 10,000 widows and children in South Korea. While on furlough in Canada she spoke to many church groups.

Among other things she told them there are 75 foundling homes in Korea—but no milk for the children. When Allied troops left Korea many of the orphanages they started could not continue.

Thousands of widows in Korea will never remarry—it is not the custom—and the Church World Service is teaching them sewing, scroll making, invisible mending, knitting by machine, and artificial flower making so they can be self-supporting.

Miss Davison, a native of Sturgeon Falls, Ont., studied Chinese at Yale University, and studied social work at the University of Toronto.

Vancouver Chinese Can't Afford to Marry Canadian Women, Expect Less in Hong Kong

By SIMMA HOLT

HONG KONG—Vancouver Chinese say they seek brides here—6,800 miles from Vancouver—because they can't afford to support Canadian Chinese women in the style to which they are accustomed.

I overheard this view in the crowded outer office of the Canadian immigration chief in the Far East, G. Ernest White.

The Vancouver man, who asked that his name not be used, explained:

"We have to own a car, a home and a business to get a wife in Canada. Not many of us have all that, so we must come to Hong Kong to find women who expect less."

Another man in the group said: "On the other hand, I know that the brides who leave here for Canada are disappointed because in Canada they cannot have their amahs."

Amahs are serving girls who work in almost every home in China and Japan for room, food and a few dollars a month. Western and Chinese women have as many as two or three amahs and therefore don't do any housework or baby tending.

Mr. White and his two assistants interviewed 1,600 to 2,000 applicants a month.

Immigration is restricted to first degree relatives of Canadian Chinese.

Between 300 and 400 a year are brides in contract marriages. The number of bride applications for Canada—the majority for Vancouver—has increased in recent months.

Many of the brides, says Mr. White, were childhood friends in Chinese villages of the prospective grooms.

Others didn't know their future husbands. The marriages were arranged by a marriage broker or relatives of the bride or groom.

Mr. White has given quite a few "old brides" permission to enter Canada to marry widowers. The widowers are lonesome or unable to care for themselves and are "not too fussy."

Only one case has "soured," says Mr. White. That was the recent Vancouver case in which the bride-elect fell in love with an American on the ship crossing to Canada. She refused to go through with the contracted Canadian marriage.

Fishing Lines...

Catch News

Yas Saito is all grins these days since he landed a 7 lb. pickerel at Rice Lake. He claims his favourite killer is the voblex spinner.

* * *

Joe Ito hooked and landed a 40 inch, 17 lb. muskie on a mepps spinner no less.

* * *

Brother Frank holidaying in Nova Scotia caught an 18-inch sebago land-locked salmon. Frank claims the salmon fought as well if not better than a rainbow.

Rainbow News

Generally the main rainbow run for the past 5 years has come at or about the first week in September, give or take a week. However, this year being lop-sided weather wise, the fishermen don't know what to expect. Usually about this time we get news of the odd fish being caught for runners of the main run yet to come.

This year's catch so far: Two small rainbows weighing about 2 lbs. were caught about a mile off the mouth of the Nottawasaga River; a small rainbow was caught at the mouth of the river; a friend saw a rainbow about 12 lbs. weight weakened and scooped out at the mouth by a lamprey; a 6 lb. rainbow was reported taken at the Ox-Bow; two rainbows about 3-4 lbs. were taken with some pickerel at the Montgomery Rapids; a 4 lb. rainbow was taken at the Boyne. (This fish may not have been a Fall run fish).

Although these reports are very encouraging, we feel that fishermen who are planning a trip strictly for rainbows are apt to be disappointed at this time.

TACKLE TIPS

Prevention of Rod Breaking

Very few rods are actually broken on fish. I guess more rods are broken on car doors than anything else. We generally lean our rods on the front of the car, so far proving to be successful or lucky.

The next worst offender is snags. When snagged it's o.k. to jiggle the rod but never rear back on the rod with brute force. We generally jiggle the rod a few times, then perhaps pull at the snag from a different direction. Another hint for rocky bottoms is: point the rod at the snag and pull on the line till it's taut and suddenly let go. The weight of the lure jumping back sometimes causes the snag to unhook itself. If everything fails, point the rod at the darn snag, pull on the line till it breaks or the hook straightens out.

Emergency Rod Repairs

Never try to jam the broken rod into the broken splinter or ferrule (joints). Stop swearing and just overlap the broken ends about 6 inches, and tape or tie them together. Later a new ferrule can be put in at the break and the rod may be quite usable though the balance will never be the same.

Japan's Ono and Kobari to Play in Canada Open

The Royal Canadian Golf Association disclosed two important developments in the wake of lengthy negotiations to make the coming $25,000 Canadian Open for the Seagram Gold Cup the "most attractive golf tournament ever held in Canada."

1) The Japanese Golf Association will send its two champion players from Tokyo to compete at Edmonton.

2) The Professional Golfers Association of America and the RGGA have completed a deal whereby 50 crack performers on the U.S. circuit will be flown from Minneapolis to Edmonton in a chartered flight.

MAKE HISTORY

Since both developments mark history in Canadian golfdom, C. E. Robinson, RCGA manager, commented that there is every indication that this year's Open "has reached the stage where it will be the biggest such tournament ever held on this side of the border."

Assured now of Japanese representation and a top-notch American circuit cast with the removal of a 2,000-mile automobile problem, the 1958 Canadian Open at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club on August 20 will feature a strong international cast with Canada's leading shotmakers playing as hosts for the $25,000 jackpot and the Seagram award.

JAPAN ENTRY

Akira Yamamoto of the Embassy of Japan at Ottawa said that two of Japan's top golfers who have been named to compete in this year's Canadian Open at Edmonton and the B.C. Centennial tournament at Vancouver are Koichi Ono, one of the Japanese pair that won the Canada Cup last year, and Haruyoshi Kobari, professional champion of Kanto, central Japan, and ninth runner-up in the Far East Open last year in Manila.

They were scheduled to leave for Vancouver in mid-August under the sponsorship of the leading Japanese newspaper Asahi.

Ono, at 49, is an old pro in international competition. Kobari, 37, is relatively new to international tournaments.

Nisei Open and Inter-Church Tennis News

The Toronto Nisei Tennis Open which was to start on the 17th has been postponed to the 24th. Matches will be held at the newly resurfaced Trinity Park court on Aug. 24, 31, Sept. 1-7th if necessary.

Although the start of the event is a week later than usual the committee expects the tournament to wind up on Labor Day with the cooperation of the players. In order that the schedule be brought up to date players will be asked to play on week nights.

Events on the 24th are as follows: Men's and Ladies doubles; mixed doubles; "A" and "B" class events with the possibility of "C" class for the beginners.

All players are asked to hand in their entries to officials of the Trinity and Bussei clubs. Any Nisei who wants to enter outside of these clubs are asked to contact Matt Matsui at WA. 3-9633 immediately.

The fee remains the same: $2 for singles; $1.50 for the second event; $1 for the third event.

Officials are hoping for record entries due to the interest shown since the Cleveland visit.

Unsuspecting Niseis met with strong opposition in the inter-church tournament resulting in losses. Tom Iwasaki, the only one left, is still battling for top position in the singles matches. In the mixed doubles, Aggi Sugimoto and Edzy Tsujimoto, Amy Iwasaki and Mickey Matsubayashi, Sue Iwasaki and Aki Koyanagi, are still in and showing great strength.

Honest Ed's Rally to Defeat Columbus 9-4

Honest Ed's late rally won over Columbus in Western City Senior baseball action at Christie Pits on Tuesday night. Ed's are now in third spot, trailing Presswood's by one game.

Tail-end Columbus fought a see-saw battle and were finally downed in the last inning. With two out, Ed's exploded for six runs in the 9-4 victory. Frank Repchik began the rally in the seventh with his second hit of the game. The single scored Tomihiro and Tanaka, both on base with walks.

Ian McPherson, a long-time member of the Nisei squad, came out of his slump with three [illegible] hits, good for three RBI's. R[illegible] Tanaka, Chelderhose and Fuk[illegible]moto each garnered singles. Ba[illegible]ney Nisker went all the way f[illegible] his second win of the season.

Measure of Success

WINNIPEG.—The several Japanese Canadian construction companies in Winnipeg are all popular and achieving a good measure of success.

One company, called "Fuji Construction", is handling construction of higher priced homes. This spring, for example, it started to build a home costing $230,000 in the outskirts of the city. It is also engaged in work for the city park.

二十日蓋明けのト市共進會に

△第八十回のトロント共進會（シーエヌ・イー）がいよいよ來る二十日ディフェンベーカー首相により開會されるが、今年は會期二日間延長、九月六日で閉幕する。世界的に有名なホープダイヤモンドがコリシアムに飾られるし、レーキショアに面した廣場を全部美しいガーデンにし、噴水を四カ所に設けるなど大いに改善し、また會場の中央にあつたダッドハム噴水をこわし、プリンセス・マガレット・ファウンテンと稱する新しいものをつくつているが、二分間毎に十七色に色が變るという豪華なもの。△ガバーメント館の正面入口から向つて右の奥まつた四千平方呎に日本部が設けられ、片方の壁側に觀光ブース（日本間）、東洋レーヨン、大日本紡、東洋紡、鐘紡、東京都、オリンピック釣具、岡山縣、古屋貿易會社らの展示ブースが設けられ、反對の壁側に同様、富士重工、第一物産、日本鋼管などがずらりと商品を陳列、中央部の入口がインフオーメーション・ブース、政府の展示品、日本光學、千代田、キャノン、八洲光學各社のキャメラ類を飾り、フレンド編物器のブースには日本から來市した勝山董さん（和歌山縣人）が編物を實演する。

△東京都經濟局通商部の高木明氏が現地事務局の主事として一行六名とともに來市、目下出品準備中である。日本部では今年はじめてダットサン一〇〇〇を展示するほか富士重工のラビットスクーターも出すが、今年の日本ブースは主に重工業製品を出展することになつていて、今までにない大規模なもので大いに期待されている。

廿九日夜に

なお共進會の開會日に萩原大使は都合で出席しないが、二十二日夜來市、二十三日會場を見て二十四日朝、遠藤領事主催のゴルフ大會にのぞみ、同夜オタワに歸る豫定である。昨年共進會で大人氣を博した日本花火は二十九日夜、湖上のバージから雨でなければ十時より半時間にわたり打揚げられるが、このため東京丸玉屋小勝煙火店主の三男小勝力夫氏がわざわざ來市、花火を打揚げることになつている。もし同夜雨降りであれば翌日の夜に日のべする。

木原均博士を稱えて

マギル大學が博士號を贈る

【モントリオール發】マギル大學で來る八月二十日から二十七日まで行われる國際遺傳學會議には日本やソ連をふくむ四十四カ國から専門學者千五百人が參加するが、遺傳學に貢獻した世界的有名學者三名にマギル大學は名譽博士號を授與することになつている。この三名の中の一人は國立遺傳學研究所長の木原均博士（北大教授）で、授與式は二十四日午前十一時十五分に行われる。日本からは木原博士ほか二、三名が會議に出席するはず。

佐藤博敏師が

廿一日夜に講演

目下シカゴで開催中の世界自由宗教者大會に日本代表として參加している金光教前教監の佐藤博敏師はトロント地方の信者の招きに應じ入加、來る八月二十一日夜八時からリジョン・ホールで講演會を行うことになつている。一般日系人の來聽を歓迎するが入場は無料。佐藤氏は日本宗教界から同會議出席の日本代表として選ばれたものであり、同師の講演は興味深いものと思われる。

紫煙 ケンゾー

ビーシー日系史

△静かな湖畔、濁流の湖畔、小じんまりしたストロベリー畑、煙る森林の中岩頭そびえる山中にそして雨と霧のたちこめる太平洋岸に沿つて住家を建てたのが、ビーシー州に移民した日本人であつた。そしてこの州にのみ希望と夢を抱きつづけてきたのである——という美しい文章が序文を書いているのがビーシー州日系人史である。

△——カナダ各地に散在する日系人が、ビーシー州を訪れるのはノスタルジアを約束するセンチメンタルな旅行ではない。そこにはタイムの幽霊が苦笑いをし、昔からのつながりのナワは断たれている。しかし美しい港に巨船が出入りし、太平洋から遠く聞える聲は東部日系人の耳には異様にしかひびかないのである。忘却の月日と思い出と、誕生破壊がくり返されているがタイムこそ破壊者であると共に保存者でもあるのである——。

△このように本文を結んでいる足立ケン氏の日系史が立派に書きあげられた。これについて森次フランク氏は『この歴史は無乾燥な教科書のようなものでなく、名文であつて、日系人の苦闘を如實に描いているし、非は非、是は是として卒直に認めているもので、本當に誇り得る歴史である』とほめている。出版のあかつきには二、三世必讀の書である。

「人身保護律」殘務整理

元タシメ在住關係者への報告書

去る一九四六年の歸國申請取消――「人身保護律」適用に關連した運動の費用清算が大變長びきましたが今回漸やく會計報告書のように結着いたしましたので關係者に謹告申上げ御承認をおねがい致します。

經過の大要

△タシメ居住地閉鎖當時は、人身保護律適用事務も繁忙を極めて居る最中であり、私自身は就職の都合上で居所も轉々とする有樣だつたので、ブルツクメーアに居られた數田喜代三氏に殘務整理を依頼しました。

△數田氏は仕事の餘暇に諸方面との交通や返戻金の處理等、寸暇もない有樣でこれを進めて下さいましたが、その數田氏もやがて、事業開始のため晩香坡へ出られました。

△一方、人身保護律適用に關し、ピーシー州市協取扱い(當時グリーンウッド)最終の分が整理出來ないうちに、同市協の責任者が他へ移動するなどで、未解決のまゝに年月は過ぎました

△昨年の春數田氏が商用のため飛行機で日本に行かれる際、殘金は一と先ず私の所へ送られて來て保管中でありましたが、その後ピーシー州市協も、會長に元グリーンウツド當時の石原ドクター、幹事には數田氏というように就任されたのを機會に、同市協役員諸氏の理解ある處置によつて解決を見ることが出來ました

△今回の最終的整理をするに當つては、元タシメ在住者で公共のために盡された主なる人々とも相談した結果、

△タシメ在住當時、自由を失つていた吾々のために人身保護律適用、政府當局との交渉その他、色々とお世話下さつた宗教關係の人々があつたことにお禮の氣持を表わすために、殘金はカナダの合同教會と聖公會の傳道本部に寄附することに決定いたしました。

△最後に、永い間お世話になつた數田喜代三氏にも皆樣と共に厚くお禮を申し上げたく存じます。

ポリオ豫防注射は全オンタリオ州居住者が受けられます

HON. MACKINNON PHILLIPS

ポリオ豫防注射が一九五五年より開始されて以來　オンタリオ州内の全幼稚園兒　パブリツク校およびハイ校生徒に注射を與えることを目的としています。すでに今年の六月までに三度にわたりポリオ豫防注射を受けた子供は九十万に達しています。

とくに四十歳までの成人に對する保護は次第に重要となつております。毎年　成人間のポリオ患者が増加し　悲しい結果となつております。この豫防注射こそは唯一の保護であります。

この事態に對處するためオンタリオ州ではポリオ豫防注射を無料で行つており　誰でもこれを受けることができます。各地方の公衆衛生サービスやフアミリ・ドクターから入手できます。

今日までポリオ注射計画に六百万本の注射を必要としました。その費用はオンタリオ州とオタワ政府が半分宛分擔しておりますが　オンタリオ州では百五十万弗もこのため支拂つています。

先決問題は軍隊の引揚げ

米大統領の中東平和提案は其後に吟味せよ

【國連發】アイゼンハワー大統領は今週の國連特別總會で『中東問題處理』について演說し、次の六カ條をあげて、中東諸國は自ら問題を片付けるべきであり、そのために必要なら米國は喜んで經濟的援助を與わると語った。

一、レバノンとヨルダンへの保護

二、外面よりする革命醸成への保護

三、惡宣傳の防止

四、中東の平和維持のため國連軍强化

五、國連援助下にアラブ諸國自体による經濟開發計畫

六、中東における武器競爭防止——イスラエルとアラブ國のことを指す

デ首相ほめる

【オタワ發】ディフェンベーカー首相はアイク大統領の中東平和提案について『明るい前途をもたらす提案だ、文句なしに受諾されるべきものであろう』といつている。

【ベイルート發】一カ月前にレバノンに突如上陸した米海兵團一個大隊（約千七百名）は今週ベイルートより引揚げた

【國連發】アラブ諸國とソ連はアイク大統領の中東平和提案を吟味するに先立つてまずレバノンから米軍が、ヨルダンから英軍が撤退することが先決問題であるとの態度に一致している。

ヨルダン代表 國連軍に反對

【國連發】中東に國連軍を派遣して平和を維持する意見に傾いている國連特別總會でヨルダン代表は『國連軍はごうでもよく、むろヨルダン軍が自ら守れるような援助をして貰つた方がどれだけよいかわからない』と爆彈的提案を行つて大きい反響を投げている。

米國が核兵器につき近く發表

【國連發】ソ連と米國は核兵器（原水爆）實驗禁止へ重大一步をふみ出す查察問題について同意に近よりつつあることが今週明らかにされた。消息筋の傳えるところによると、國連特別總會における中東問題討議で世界の注目はそれに集中しているかたちであるが、原水爆テスト禁止について國連內では靜かにこの問題をとりあげて著々目的に向つて話をすすめており、九月十六日に行われる國連通常總會にはこれを議題として出す準備がなりつつあるとしている。特に米國としては今週國連放射能委員會がその人類に及ぼす影響について重大警告を發しているさいでもあり、アジア諸國ならびにアラブ諸國の支持を失つているときでもあるので、米國は思い切つて原水爆實驗禁止にのり出すのではないかとの見方が有力化している。米國は通常總會開催までに數カ條の條件付で實驗禁止を發表するはずであると確實なる筋から得た情報として報じられているが、ソ連が完全に中止するかどうか確かめる方法さわ見出し得れば、米國は禁止するのではないかといわれている。

橫濱で貿易會議

【橫濱發】橫濱開港百年を記念する國際貿易會議が來春行われ、アジア、アフリカを除く世界三十五カ國の貿易關係代表百四十人が招かれる豫定である。これに要する費用は總額九百万圓で縣と橫濱市が折半する。この會議にはカナダも招かれている）

日本語ブームで

＝外務省も本腰入れて宣傳＝

【東京發】最近海外では日本語が大流行し、東南アジア諸國はもとより、アルゼンチン、ポーランド、カナダなど世界各地から『日本語教師をおくつてくれ』との依賴があり『語學用レコード』『日本語講座を開きたい』などと注文が各在外公館を通じて外務省に殺到しているという。

△こうした機運に對して外務省はこんど評論家中島健藏、文部省國語審議會々長土岐善麿、慶大教授奧野信太郎らに呼びかけて『海外における日本語學校設置ならびに日本語教育に關する懇話會』を設け、日本語の宣傳運動に本腰を入れだした。

△これに關連して外務省は『實用日本語會話レコード』を世界二十カ國の在外公館に配布した。また小學校一二年生用教科書と『日本語讀本』『ひらがなのよみかた』などの參考書が飛ぶように出ている。懇話會ではこの『日本語ブーム』に對し

一、海外の適當な都市に日本語學校をつくり

二、日本語教師を養成し、教材と一緒に海外に送り出

百万臺賣れた電氣ガマ

【東京通信】日本の家庭用電氣器具の普及ぶりについてはよく紹介されているのであまり書く必要もない。今やテレビは東京では四軒に一臺となり、電氣センタクは五軒に一臺にまで普及してきた。電氣冷藏庫やミキサーも相當な勢いで伸びてきた。アメリカにない日本特有の電氣器具もいろいろある。

△電氣コタツがそれである。最近猛烈に賣れたのが電氣ガマである。米の飯をたくのを電氣でやろうというもの。つまり電氣ヒーターの上にカマを載せて飯が炊き上るとスイッチが自動的に切れるという装置、これにタイム・スイッチをつけておくと朝六時、七時になると自動的にスイッチが入つてたけ、終るとスイッチが切れるようになつているので實に重寶だというのである。

△日本全國で百万臺賣れたというが、水加減さえ一定すればだれがたいても失敗の憂目にあわないですむという代物である。恐らく近い將來、日本で考え出したこのカマが在外日系人の家庭に浸透して行くにちがいないだろう。（エム生）

旅客機が行方不明に

九九名の生命危まる

【ニューファンランド、ガンダー發】乘客九十一名と乘組員八名を乘せたケー・エル・エム（オランダ航空）機はアムステルダムよりニューヨークに向う大西洋上で行方不明となり、全員九十九名は溺死したものと信じられている。パン・アメリカン貨物機はガンダー近くの上空で十四日午前、遭難信號を受けたとのことであるが、それが行方不明の旅客機から發信されたものかは不明である。一說には乘客中に二名のカナダ人が含まれているとのことである。

日本でも遭難 三三人が死亡

【東京時事通信】十二日夜羽田發名古屋小牧飛行場行きの全日本空輸旅客機は乘客三十人と乘務員三人を乘せたまま靜岡縣下田付近と思われる上空で行方不明となつた。十三日午後、海上で遺体と機体の一部を發見收容したが、三十三人の死亡は決定的となつている。

ジェット機で東京へ九時間半

【東京發】カナダ太平洋航空會社では今週ジェット機による太平洋無着陸橫斷の試驗飛行を行い、無事東京に到着した。この試驗的飛行の時速は平均三百八十哩、晚市・東京間二千九百十マイルをわずか九時間二十四分で一氣に飛んでいる。なおシーピーエーでは來る八月二十三日から週二回宛、ジェット機を定期的に出すことになつている。

なおテロ續く

ヅガボー投彈

【ペンテクトン發】オカナガン・バレー方面におけるヅガボーのテロは勢いをますばかりで、今週、この地方三町內の建物に手製爆彈を投げ入れて大損害を與えたそのためマウンティー增援隊が現地に急派され、犯人搜査に躍起となつているが、まだ捕まらない。

日本で建造

原子力貨物船

【東京時事通信】日本郵船原子造船研究會はこのほど原子力貨物船の仕樣を次のように決め、基本設計に取りかかるが、年內には完了する豫定である。

一万一千重量トン、二十二ノット、二万五千頭馬力、原子爐は加壓水型、燃料取替期間二年、航海はニューヨーク航路

【ワシントン發】米原子力潛水艦二隻が北極海潛行に成功したことによつて米國の二大原子力會社では原子力貨物船建計について興味をふかめ、近く設計にとりかかるはずである。

晚市方面ヒデリ

撒水を制限す

【晚市發】今夏は珍しい暑さである。その理由は日本からの暖流の異變から來た暑さだともいわれており、海流の變更でサモンの河上りもずいぶんおくれているとのことである。晚市地方は八月に入つて以來、降雨らしいものはなく、晚市やバナビー方面のガーデン撒水は四日に半日だけ、西晚は一日おきというように節水を嚴重にしている。

はなし

△レー・エヌ・アール鐵道が誇る大陸橫斷の高速客車コンチネンタルは赤字運轉で、その數字を發表するのが恐ろしいとシーエヌ社長さんは上院で話している。もつとよいサービスをしてお客を誘致すればよいではないかとやり込められたが、またトロント・オタワ間の寝車の寝臺はあまり寝心地が惡くて一すいもできないとの文句が出たので、同社長さん曰く『一杯ぎゆつと飲んで寝ればたしかに眠れますよ』と。

It Was Dull

Princess Margaret's tour of Canada would be a farce fit for the satirical pen of a Jonathan Swift, who mocked, among other things, the absurdity of petty officialdom in his classic "Gulliver's Travels." As Canadians, we should look askance at the month-long tour that took her across Canada from Victoria and ended in her departure from Halifax last Monday.

The tour showed that Canadians, at least the officialdom, are impossibly staid, stuffy, provincial, and unimaginative. And it demonstrated how much the behaviour patterns of Canadian officials are orientated to the worst possible extremes of stuffy English protocol.

A detached observer looking on the scene might have thought that Canada was still in the status of a colony, rather than being an independent nation taking its place among the influential countries of the world. We need not rehearse here the arguments whether or not her visit was necessary. But we should decry the appalling manner in which it was conducted, the waste and the boredom.

We watched this lovely young woman, full of grace and intrinsic charm, being subjected to a mounting barrage of ceremonial reviews, endless damp handshaking, presentation of bouquets, and so on. And all around her—from the review of ships off Victoria harbor to the farewell banquet at Halifax—were hundreds of granite-faced, silver-thatched or balding politicians scurrying to give one more cliche-ridden, superfluous speech.

We watched as Canadian officialdom made her a bird in the gilded cage of starched pomposity and the overwhelming cliche. It must have been as dull for her as it was for us.

She saw Canada's towering mountains, the serenity of the lakes, and the big cities. But she saw little that matched Canada's rather spectacular beauty. Of its spiritual or intellectual resources she must have very little inkling, surrounded as she was by the suffocating wall of Very Important Persons.

We saw her only getting in and out of limousines on her way to another solemn function. She probably wished, with Robert Browning, to be in England now that summer's here where she might be treated as a human being.

We are told so often that Canada is a country of promise and advancement. In physical resources, Canada is rich, but in almost everything else, Canada is largely marked by mediocrity and lack of spontaneity. Princess Margaret's tour and the way it was handled is merely another in a long line of justifiable charges that Canadians are dull and unimaginative. And, perhaps, second-rate.

EXPLODING A MYTH

According to the daydreams of romantic-minded damsels, suitors are most likely to propose at gay resorts, gala parties, on moonlit decks of luxury liners and in secluded hideaways. But studies, surveys and statistics have knocked all these fascinating fantasies into a cocked hat. They've shown that the locale and method of that big moment we anticipate all our lives is not only unromantic, but downright mundane. Your Dream Man, it seems, is most likely to propose in 1) the car, 2) your own home, 3) a public place like a restaurant, street or park. And pop the question he does, too. No long soliloquy of undying love or any persistent and persuasive pleas. Not by a long shot. Man's average proposal time is exactly 1 minute, 30 seconds flat. By the stopwatch. Take it or leave it. If these findings haven't taken the R out of romance for you, here's one that will. Definition of a kiss: "An anatomical juxtaposition of two orbicular muscles in a state of contraction."

● rock 'n' roll

By CAROL TERADA

Four young lads known as the "Stereos" are currently making a name for themselves in the field of rock 'n' roll music. This group, which was formed through answering a want ad, was known originally as the Four Emcees. They credit the now popular Diamonds as their inspiration in hitting the entertainment media.

Their new disc, "I Wish I Was a Teenager Again", rates high in the minds of fans and is currently on the local hit parade. The flip side is "Doodle-ee-do." Both sides have terrific beats and are in great demand wherever they appear.

The group consists of Harry, Iver, Al and Larry. Harry, the top tenor, is very understanding in the opinion of the guys and dolls, and has an angelic face to match. Iver, the baritone, is the prankster of the group, and he displays a sparkle in his eyes that reminds me of a cute little monster next door. Al, who sings second tenor and lead, is the conscientious member who takes his work and career quite seriously. And Larry, who takes the bass spot, is to be credited in writing both sides of their new disc. Worldly and fun-loving—this best describes these talented individuals.

Although they were filled with merriment during my interview, these four young men look to their future seriously and work in earnest. They have had plenty of experience, appearing with such stars as Andy Williams, Perry Como, Johnny Desmond, Jeri Sothern, and our friend Paul Anka. They have also shared the same billing with the versatile Sammy Davis Jr., and have appeared at many school proms and night clubs.

I interviewed a few of my friends on what they thought of the Stereos. They claimed that the Stereos were good.

Now that you've got the low-down, how about going out and buying their new disc? It's got a fabulous sound, and I'm telling you you'll really flip when you hear "Doodle-ee-do." These guys can make a person 90 years old feel like 16 when they croon out their songs.

If you want to drop a line to these fellows, send it to The Stereos, c/o Miss Joy Limebeer, R.R. No. 2, Caledon, Ont. They'll appreciate it and will look forward to hearing your comments on their new record. And watch for the Stereos—they might be at the next dance you attend.

I'll be seeing you guys and dolls, chicks and chucks, Moms and Dads, and everyone else not included!

ED'S NOTE: Miss Terada has written articles on rock 'n' roll in past issues of the NC. She is a 16-year-old high school student who is currently head of the Everly Brothers Fan Club in Toronto.

A Visit to Mexico City

CITY OF CONTRAST

By NANCY TAKEUCHI

Mexico City is to me one of the most fascinating places one could visit—such a contrast of the vibrant and the suppressed, the hauntingly beautiful and the sharply ugly, the educated and the poor. It is seventy-four thousand feet above sea level sprawling on a sixty by thirty mile basin surrounded by mountain-peaks. And because of its location, the afternoon rains come during the summer months barely touching the ground before being soaked up by the dry ground and thirsty air.

Mexico City has its lovely residential areas with large, pastel-tinted homes and spacious gardens. On a warm day, the young ninos and ninas are escorted on their walks by their Indian nurses through the tree-shaded avenidas. Not far away are the districts comprised solely of small adobe huts with no hint of green on the ground, dwelling places for the destitute and the sick. Such a difference within a few blocks distance!

On downtown Avenida Júarez, the sun-glassed, camera-toting tourist bargains fervently with a barefooted peddlar who is selling either silver jewellery, leather goods or lottery tickets—his only chance of success. Apparently it is expected that the quoted price be bargained down and we found it amusing to hear distorted Spanish words fall out of our mouths in the process. In the warm afternoons I bought buns at a panaderia and sat in the fountain-splayed, cool Alameda in downtown Mexico City or in wooded Chapultepec Park watching the leisure-loving Mexicans amble along—the well-dressed businessmen clutching their newspapers and barefeet children minding the younger ones on their backs.

And talking of good food—there are many exotic restaurants where good food is to be had at reasonable prices. I dined many times at the three restaurants of Sanborn's on Mexican enchiladas or carne asada or plain chocolate ice cream. And places like Santa Anita, Shirley's Courts and the hotel dinning-rooms are to be recommended. Delmonico's, one of Mexico's best restaurants, serves delicious international cuisine and exotic drinks. We sat near the pond with its overhanging gardens and enjoyed frogs legs. The service was so excellent that every time I took a mouthful of water from the goblet, the waiter came to replace the twenty cc's or so.

Slightly apprehensive, I went to the Corrida de Toros to see the bulls being massacred by a long succession of matadors, picadors and banderillos. At first, I thought how cruel it was to see eight or so grown men picking on one bull but after seeing a few courageous lithe manouveurs, I saw the sport of the game and shouted "Ole" with the crowd. After an exceptionally daring encounter, the crowd became a riot of noise and movement, and I helped celebrate by partaking of a squirt of pulque juice from a squeezable leather bag. Ole!

Ciudad Universidad is the impressive modern university of Mexico imparting knowledge to about forty thousand students. The sparingly spaced buildings are decorated with frescoes done by various noted Mexico painters and the effect is quite striking. The campus itself covers hundreds of acres, and is dotted with the different faculties, each with its individual design and decoration. The stadium where the Pan-American games were held overlooks a panorama of the university; and beyond, the skyline of Mexico dissipates into the horizon.

There are still many more places of interest in and around Mexico City. At Xochimilco, we rode in flower-decked gondolas around the narrow canals which were originally just a lake, and bought lovely baby orchid corsages to wear on our dresses. We climbed the pyramid to the Sun at San Juan Teotihuacan and obtained a breath-taking view of the surrounding ruins and countryside—a reminder of a mighty ancient civilization. It was interesting to see the many people at the Shrine of Guadalupe honoring the Virgin Mary. There was such a contrast between the richly-embroidered gowns of the attendants and the dirty, smelly rags of the majority of the worshippers.

The Palacio de Bellas Artes is the cultural centre housing a museum and gallery where we saw "Tosca" with Rosita Rimroch playing to a maximum house. Contrary to popular opinion, the Mexican people seemed quite calm and reserved. We also saw the glass curtain there, made by Tiffany of New York, showing the two famous mountains of Mexico: Popocatepetl, the Smoking Mountain, and Ixtaccihuatl, the Sleeping Woman. The colors on the curtain changed from the subtle hues of dawn to the fiery display of vivid reds and purples and blacks to dark blue night. It was quite dramatic although slightly over-rated by the travel-books. There is a romantic legend—like all of fascinating Mexico—connected with these two cerras.

Ixtaccihuatl was the daughter of a mighty chief and in love with a brave, Popocatepetl—courageous but a commoner. He approached her father for her hand and he agreed to it if he accomplished the feat of driving the tribal foes out of the land. So, Popocatepetl left and fought war after war until all the enemy had been conquered. In the meantime, some of his jealous rivals in hopes of winning her had brought word back to the maiden that he had been killed. The princess fell ill of a malady no medicine man was able to frighten away. Upon returning to claim the maiden, Popocatepetl found her dead. In anguished grief, he picked her up tenderly and walked away to the mountains. When night fell, he laid her rest on a mountain as he stood nearby with a flaming torch keeping constant vigilance. And so the gods immortalized their love—to this day the snow-clad outline of Ixtaccihuatl is apparent on a clear day and nearby, Popocatepetl sits, a volcano keeping eternal vigilance.
